Committees

107th Congress

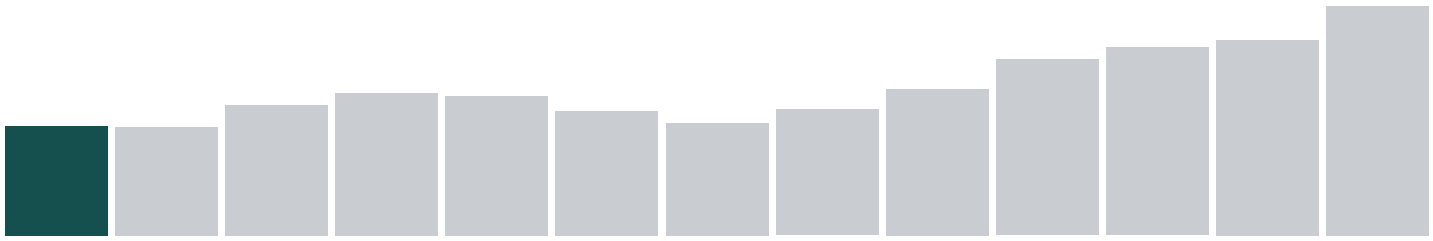

Every bill is sent somewhere before it goes anywhere. This is where the 107th Congress sent them, how much each committee took on, and how much of it came back out.

7 committees take half the work

13,260 referrals were spread across 40 committees, but 7 of them, 18% of the field, account for half. The busiest is Ways and Means Committee, with 14.7% of everything referred.
