115th Congress

What the 561 members of the 115th Congress put their names to: the bills they introduced, the bills they signed onto, and how often they signed one from the other side.

27% of bills come from a tenth of members

The 56 busiest members introduced 3,704 of the 13,562 bills sponsored this Congress. 98.4% of members put their name to at least one, so the work is widely shared but very unevenly divided.
