Summary (as of Mar 22, 2001)

Voters' Choice Act - Permits a State to establish multi-seat congressional districts only if the State uses a voting system that: (1) meets the constitutional standard of majority rule and of individuals having equal voting power; and (2) ensures the election of any candidate receiving at least one vote greater than one-third of the total votes cast in the district. Expresses the sense of Congress regarding use of instant runoff voting systems in elections for President and Vice President.
