Summary (as of Jul 24, 2001)

Electricity Information, Disclosure, Efficiency, and Accountability Act - Amends the Federal Power Act to instruct the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission to promulgate regulations requiring each system operator to establish a standardized information system that provides access (including access on the Internet) to: (1) bulk-power system operating data for all users of the bulk-power system, State regulatory authorities, and the public; and (2) market-bid data for designated persons.

Provides for protection of commercially sensitive data upon petition of a bulk-power system user.

Restricts disclosure of bidder identity to duly authorized State and Federal regulatory agencies.
