Summary (as of Jun 14, 2001)

Amtrak Good Neighbor Act of 2001 - Amends Federal rail transportation law to direct the National Railroad Passenger Corporation (Amtrak), on request from and in conjunction with a local government in a State on the main line of the Northeast Corridor, to develop and implement a plan for rail enhancement activities, including providing to the local government safe access to rail property and structures for such enhancement activities. Defines "rail enhancement activity" to mean landscaping, painting, and other beautification, historic preservation, and rehabilitation and operation of rail property and structures (including buildings, bridges, grade crossings, flyovers, and other facilities).
