Summary (as of Aug 2, 2001)

National Advisory Voter Initiative Act of 2001 - Gives the people in each State who have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State legislature the right to propose any law which the Congress has authority to pass and to propose the repeal of any provision of law passed by Congress which has become law. Outlines the procedure for the people to exercise such right through petition and State vote.

Provides that if a law or repeal proposed under this Act receives a majority of the votes cast in 3/5 of the several States, the proposed law or repeal shall be introduced in the House of Representatives by the Speaker of the House and in the Senate by the President pro tempore on the first day of the first session of Congress following the vote.
