Summary (as of Sep 21, 2001)

Safe Skies Act of 2001 - Amends Federal aviation law to direct the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration to ensure that each individual who is enrolled or to be enrolled in a civilian school for instruction in flying single-engine or multi-engine aircraft or helicopter, or who has commenced flight training (other than ground training) from an authorized flight instructor of such aircraft or helicopter, has had a background review conducted by the Administrator and paid for by such individual.

Expresses the sense of Congress that the Administrator, the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency should ensure that such reviews be completed not more than 28 days after the effective date of this Act, or in the case of an individual to be enrolled for instruction after such effective date, 28 days after the date of application for such enrollment.
