Summary (as of Oct 4, 2002)

Prohibits transferring or otherwise making available for condemnation specified land located in Riverside County, California, that is held in fee by the Pechanga Band of Luiseno Mission Indians until: (1) the Secretary of the Interior renders a final decision on the pending fee to trust application concerning such land; and (2) final decisions have been rendered regarding all appeals relating to that application decision; or (3) such fee to trust application is withdrawn. Declares that nothing in this Act designates any of the land held in fee or any interest in such land as an Indian reservation, Indian country, Indian land, or reservation land for any purpose under any Federal law.
