Summary (as of Oct 8, 2002)

Expresses the sense of the Senate that: (1) the international scholarly community, the European Union, and individual governments should reject calls for an academic boycott of Israel; (2) the worldwide educational establishment should reverse actions taken to impede academic collaboration and free intellectual expression with Israeli intellectuals and institutions; and (3) the United States and the American scholarly community should continue to actively support efforts to increase academic cooperation and encourage U.S.-Israeli cultural and scientific exchange.
