Summary (as of Apr 9, 2002)

Electronic Commerce Crime Prevention and Protection Act - Amends the Brady Handgun Violence Prevention Act to prohibit a licensed importer, manufacturer, or dealer from transferring a firearm to any other person who is not licensed to deal in firearms unless any thing of value accepted by the licensee in exchange for the firearm is presented in person by the transferee at the time of the transfer. Requires the licensed importer, manufacturer, or dealer to record a detailed description of any thing of value accepted by the licensee in exchange for the firearm. Sets forth analogous provisions with respect to the transfer of ammunition and explosive materials.
