Summary (as of Nov 13, 2002)

Calls on North Korea to: (1) abide by specified articles of the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, which it has signed; (2) abide by the U.S.-North Korea Agreed Framework of 1994 by honoring its commitments to freeze its nuclear programs and by allowing the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) to carry out inspections; and (3) comply with specified United Nations resolutions.

Calls on the IAEA to report to the United Nations on the status of North Korea's compliance with inspections. Calls on members of the Korean Peninsula Energy Development Organization (KEDO) to suspend construction of the light water reactor in North Korea and shipment of heavy fuel oil to North Korea if the IAEA reports non-compliance by North Korea. Calls on concerned countries to support the suspension of the U.S. commitment under the Framework pending compliance by North Korea with IAEA inspections criteria.
