Summary (as of Jun 24, 2004)

Declares that the Government of the People's Republic of China (PRC), given the global shortage of coke, should: (1) take the necessary steps to ensure that Chinese companies that export coke are not charging any form of export license fees for such exports; (2) remove any limitation on the quantity of coke that may be exported from the PRC; (3) allow more companies to export coke from the PRC in order to promote fair market pricing of that product; and (4) take the necessary steps to provide export licenses for coke without cost or delay.
