(This measure has not been amended since it was introduced. The expanded summary of the Senate passed version is repeated here.)

Recognizes that: (1) November 2, 2003, shall be dedicated to "A Tribute to Survivors" at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum and devoted to honoring our Nation's Holocaust survivors, as well as their liberators and rescuers, and their families; and (2) on that day, the Museum shall be devoted in its entirety to special programs about and for the survivors of the Holocaust.

Commends the Museum for its first decade of education dedicated to the memory of the victims of the Holocaust.

Endeavors to continue to support the vital work of the Museum.

Requests that this resolution be duly recorded in the official records of the Museum.
