(This measure has not been amended since it was introduced. The summary of that version is repeated here.)

Designates September 14, 2005, as National Attention Deficit Disorder Awareness Day.

Recognizes Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (AD/HD) as a major public health concern. Encourages people to find out more about AD/HD and supporting mental health services and to seek treatment and support. Expresses the sense of the Senate that the federal government has a responsibility to: (1) raise public awareness about AD/HD; and (2) consider ways to improve mental health services for children and adults with AD/HD.
