Summary (as of Oct 17, 2005)

Temporary Worker Registration and Visa Act of 2005 - Amends the Immigration and Nationality Act to provide for issuance of a temporary (initial three-year period with three-year extensions) worker visa (W-visa) for qualifying aliens who have been continuously unlawfully present and working full-time in the United States from January 1, 2005 through the application date provided for under this Act.

Conditions such admission on the alien worker's continuous employment.

Limits family member follow-to-join admissions to situations where the family member meets registration or W-visa requirements.
