Summary (as of Apr 27, 2006)

Recognizes and commends the American Ballet Theatre (ABT) for over 65 years of service as "America's National Ballet Company," during which it has provided world class art to audiences in all 50 states.

Recognizes that: (1) the ABT serves as a true cultural ambassador for the United States by having performed in 42 countries and fulfilling its reputation as one of the world's most revered and innovative dance companies; and (2) the ABT's extensive and innovative education, outreach, and artistic development programs both train future generations of great dancers and expose students to the arts.
