Summary (as of Jan 5, 2007)

Safe NOW Act of 2007 - Establishes the National Sex Offender Risk Classification Task Force to create guidelines for a risk-based sex offender classification system. Authorizes the Task Force to carry out demonstration programs in five selected jurisdictions to: (1) use the Task Force's preliminary guidelines to implement such a system for their sex offender registries; and (2) identify ways to improve such guidelines. Expresses the sense of Congress that each participating jurisdiction should use final Task Force guidelines to implement such a system for its registry.
