Summary (as of Mar 5, 2009)

Recognizes the positive effect the National School Breakfast Program has had on children's classroom performance and the lives of low-income children and families.

Expresses strong support for states that have successfully implemented school breakfast programs and encourages all states to improve their programs.

Recognizes: (1) the importance of providing states with resources to improve the availability of adequate and nutritious breakfasts; (2) the role nonprofit and community organizations play in increasing awareness of, and access to, breakfast programs for low-income children; and (3) that National School Breakfast Week helps draw attention to the need for, and success of, the National School Breakfast Program.
