Summary (as of Jan 12, 2011)

Los Padres National Forest Land Exchange Act - Authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to convey specified National Forest System lands to the United Water Conservation District of California in exchange for the conveyance of specified non-federal lands to the Secretary.

Makes the completion of such land exchange a priority for the Forest Service and instructs the Forest Service to endeavor to complete the exchange within one year of enactment.

Requires the Secretary to reserve easements for all trails and roads considered necessary for administrative purposes and to ensure public access.
