Summary (as of Mar 12, 2013)

Directs (under current law, in each case authorizes) the Secretary of Defense (DOD) to: (1) lend equipment and supplies and furnish services in support of Boy Scout Jamborees, (2) provide transportation for attendees of any national or world Jamboree, and (3) provide personnel services and logistical support at any Jamboree held on a military installation.

Allows the Secretary to furnish such transportation to the extent it will not interfere with national security (under current law, with the requirements of military operations).
