Expresses the sense of the House of Representatives that a Contract with America should include a roadmap to restore American competitiveness by:

- simplifying the corporate tax structure with lower statutory rates and no loopholes;
- taxing overseas profits earned by American multinational companies only where they are earned;
- easing the immigration of highly skilled individuals;
- responsibly developing America's shale-gas and oil reserves;
- aggressively addressing distortions and abuses in the international trading system;
- improving American logistics, communications, and energy infrastructure;
- simplifying and streamlining federal regulation; and
- creating a sustainable federal budget, including entitlement reform.
