Summary (as of Jun 4, 2015)

Fighting for American Jobs Act of 2015

Directs each federal agency that provides contracts, grants, loans, or loan guarantees to businesses to require, as a condition of such assistance, that such businesses provide annually information on:

- the number of employees employed in the United States and its territories and possessions and the number employed outside the United States, as well as wage information on U.S. employees; and
- the percentage of the workforce that has been laid off or forced to resign during the preceding year. Prohibits, until the situation is corrected, subsequent federal assistance to businesses that lay off a greater percentage of workers in the United States and its territories and possessions than in other countries.

Actions Timeline

- Jun 4, 2015: Introduced in House
- Jun 4, 2015: Referred to the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform.
