Summary (as of Jul 16, 2015)

Commemorative Coins Reform Act of 2015

This bill prohibits surcharges generated by the sale of any numismatic item or commemorative coin program from being paid to a non-federal organization, except with respect to sales and production costs.

Surcharges must be used to recover all numismatic operation and program costs allocable to the program under which a numismatic item is produced and sold.

Any excess surcharges must be transferred to the general fund of the Treasury for deficit reduction purposes.
