Summary (as of Sep 18, 2015)

Interstate Milk Freedom Act of 2015

This bill provides that federal departments, agencies, or courts must not prohibit, interfere with, regulate, or otherwise restrict the interstate traffic of unpasteurized milk or milk products packaged for direct human consumption if:

- the action is based on a determination that, solely because the product is unpasteurized, it is adulterated, misbranded, or otherwise in violation of federal law;
- the state of origin allows unpasteurized milk or milk products to be distributed for direct human consumption by any means;
- the product is produced, packaged, and moved in compliance with the laws of the state of origin; and
- the product is moved from the state of origin with the intent to transport it to another state which allows the distribution of unpasteurized milk or milk products for direct human consumption.

The bill does not preempt any state laws.
