Department of Homeland Security Acquisition Innovation Act

(Sec. 2) This bill amends the Homeland Security Act of 2002 to authorize the Department of Homeland Security's (DHS's) Under Secretary for Management to:

- designate an individual within DHS to manage DHS acquisition innovation efforts,
- test emerging acquisition best practices,
- develop and distribute best practices and lessons learned regarding acquisition innovations,
- establish metrics to measure the effectiveness of acquisition innovation efforts, and
- determine impacts of acquisition innovation efforts on the private sector by obtaining feedback from it and incorporating such feedback into future acquisition innovation efforts.

The bill requires DHS, by 90 days after it submits the annual budget justification for DHS for each of FY2018-FY2022, to provide information to specified congressional committees on:

- emerging acquisition best practices that were tested within DHS,
- efforts to distribute best practices and lessons learned within DHS,
- utilization of best practices by DHS components,
- performance as measured by the metrics established under this bill,
- outcomes of efforts to distribute best practices and lessons learned within DHS,
- impacts of the utilization of innovative acquisition mechanisms by DHS on the private sector,
- the criteria used to identify specific acquisition programs or activities to be included in acquisition innovation efforts and the outcomes of such programs or activities, and
- recommendations to enhance acquisition innovation in DHS.
