Expresses the sense of the House of Representatives that:

- it is Congress's duty to uphold the U.S. Constitution and all of the fundamental rights, including the freedom of the press;
- the President must immediately acknowledge his support of the First Amendment and express his support for U.S. democracy;
- the United States should continue being a democracy, not an autocracy;
- White House spokespersons should not issue fake news; and
- White House spokespersons who offer alternative or inaccurate facts should retract their statements immediately.
