Iranian Revolutionary Guard Corps Economic Exclusion Act

This bill expands sanctions against Iran's Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC).

The President shall report to Congress regarding:

- foreign and domestic supply chains that significantly aid the IRGC;
- Iranian state-owned entities that provide support to terrorist entities, including Mahan Air; and
- foreign persons owned or controlled by the IRGC, including companies listed on the Tehran Stock Exchange or companies with a value in excess of $100 million.

The bill states that it is U.S. policy to prevent Iran's membership in the World Trade Organization and similar international bodies as long as Iran remains a state sponsor of terrorism.
