Summary (as of May 25, 2017)

Expresses the sense of the House of Representatives that:

- Congress should establish a federal reapportionment system that would create compact and contiguous congressional districts that, to the greatest extent possible, follow geographic boundaries and county lines;
- congressional districts should not favor or disfavor an incumbent or political party;
- congressional districts should adhere to the existing standards of equal population; and
- the highest court of each state should have the power to reject congressional district maps that do not meet the above criteria.
