Fair Access to Credit Scores Act of 2017

This bill amends the Fair Credit Reporting Act to require certain consumer reporting agencies to disclose, upon request, as part of a consumer's free annual disclosure: (1) the consumer's current credit score, (2) any other information in the consumer's file regarding risk scores or predictors, and (3) any other consumer information the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau considers appropriate with respect to consumer financial education.

Consumer reporting agencies shall maintain such scores or predictors in a consumer's file for at least one year after the data is generated.
