Department of State and United States Agency for International Development Accountability Act of 2017

This bill requires: (1) the Department of State and the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) to submit: (1) a report listing all outstanding recommendations from the Government Accountability Office (GAO) that relate to the State Department or USAID that have not been fully implemented, and (2) a report on the implementation status of such recommendations.

The GAO shall report on any discrepancies between State Department-USAID list of outstanding recommendations and GAO's list.

The implementation status report shall include:

- for any recommendation the State Department or USAID has decided not to fully implement or to implement in a different manner than what was recommended, a detailed justification for the decision;
- for any recommendation the State Department or USAID has decided to adopt but which has not been fully implemented, a timeline for full implementation; and
- an explanation for any discrepancies included in the GAO report.
