Summary (as of Jul 19, 2017)

---

Declares that the House of Representatives has no confidence that President Trump is faithfully executing the office of President.

Calls for President Trump to:

- release his tax returns;
- place his private business assets in a blind trust or divest from them;
- donate to the U.S. Treasury any personal profit from foreign patronage of hotels in which he has an ownership interest;
- refrain from taking any action that results in taxpayer money being spent on goods or services from businesses in which he has an ownership interest;
- seek congressional consent for any emoluments he has received from foreign countries;
- refrain from using Twitter inappropriately;
- support the First Amendment, support freedom of the press, refrain from calling reporting "fake news," refrain from posting video of himself wrestling with a press logo, and stop limiting full electronic press access to White House press briefings;
- promote democracy, freedom of the press, and human rights in foreign policy;
- unequivocally acknowledge that Russia interfered in the 2016 U.S. presidential election and work to protect our electoral process from future foreign interference;
- refuse any offer to form a cybersecurity unit with the Russian government to protect the United States from election hacking;
- respect the independence of our nation's judicial branch;
- respect Members of Congress and refrain from using derogatory nicknames for them; and
- conduct foreign policy in a manner that reflects the U.S. traditional role as leader of the free world.
