Recognizes the International Day of Rural Women.

Calls on the people of the United States and interested groups to:

- celebrate rural women as integral members of societies and economies around the world;
- recognize women farmers for their role in feeding their families and fellow countrymen and for their productivity which helps maintain economic stability and stronger democracies;
- ensure rural women have access to the tools and productive resources they need to engage in entrepreneurship; and
- recommit to reducing limitations, breaking down barriers to success, and prioritizing initiatives that wholly support rural women farmers at the local level.
