Summary (as of Jun 28, 2018)

Federal Employees Paid Parental Leave Act of 2018

This bill provides paid parental leave for federal employees.

Specifically, it provides up to 12 workweeks of paid leave during the 12-month period following a child's birth or placement for adoption or foster care.

Additionally, the Office of Personnel Management may increase the amount of paid parental leave to up to 16 workweeks based on a consideration of certain factors (e.g., enhanced recruitment and retention of employees).
