Summary (as of May 9, 2019)

CCAMPIS Reauthorization Act

This bill reauthorizes through FY2025 and revises the Child Care Access Means Parents in School Program. (The program awards grants to support the participation of low-income parents in postsecondary education through the provision of campus-based child care services.)

Among other revisions to the program, the bill

- authorizes the Department of Education (ED) to provide performance bonuses to certain institutions of higher education (IHEs);
- requires ED to give priority in awarding grants to certain IHEs, including those with high proportions of independent or low-income students; and
- specifies additional grant application requirements.
