End the Congressional Revolving Door Act

This bill prohibits a former Member of Congress or former senior congressional employee who is a registered lobbyist, and entitled to compensation as such, from being eligible for any benefits beginning after enactment of this bill under

- the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS), including the Thrift Savings Plan (TSP);
- the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS), including the TSP;
- the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program, including federal enhanced dental and vision benefits; or
- the Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance Program.

The bill does not prevent the payment of any CSRS or FERS lump-sum credit to which an individual is entitled or any nonforfeitable amount in an individual's TSP account.
