Summary (as of Dec 18, 2020)

Anti-Corruption and Public Integrity Act

This bill addresses issues of corruption and public integrity, campaign reform, and ethics in government.

Specifically, the bill

- prohibits members of Congress, cabinet secretaries, federal judges, and other senior government officials from owning and trading individual stock or serving on corporate boards;
- institutes a lifetime ban on lobbying by former members of Congress, Presidents, and agency heads;
- requires disclosure of funding or editorial conflicts of interest in rulemaking and establishes an Office of the Public Advocate;
- requires the Supreme Court to follow the ethics rules for all other federal judges and encourages diversity on the federal bench;
- creates a new, independent anti-corruption agency dedicated to enforcing federal ethics laws;
- requires elected officials and candidates for federal office to disclose more financial and tax information and requires increased disclosure of corporate money behind lobbying; and
- makes changes to the Federal Election Commission.
