This resolution establishes budget allocations and other budget enforcement requirements that apply in the House of Representatives for FY2023.

Specifically, the resolution establishes

- committee allocations,
- aggregate spending and revenue levels,
- limitations on advance appropriations, and
- procedures for exempting emergency spending from the requirements.

The resolution also allows certain adjustments to the budgetary levels, including adjustments to accommodate additional spending for

- disaster relief,
- wildfire suppression,
- health care fraud and abuse control,
- continuing disability reviews and redeterminations, and
- reemployment services and eligibility assessments.

The provisions in this resolution expire if a FY2023 budget resolution is adopted by both chambers of Congress.
