Summary (as of Jan 28, 2021)

Skills Renewal Act

This bill allows a refundable tax credit for qualified training services received by certain individuals who are unemployed in 2020 due to the coronavirus (i.e., the virus that causes COVID-19) pandemic. The bill defines qualified training service as a course or program of study identified by the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act for a state, or as a course or program of study relating to computer science, technology, or another high need area, such as a coding boot camp, that has been precertified by the Department of Labor.
