Summary (as of May 13, 2021)

Safe Driving Vehicles Act

This bill directs the Department of Transportation (DOT) to develop an educational program and related resources to inform the public about certain motor vehicle-related health and safety risks. It must ensure that the program and resources are publicly available and accessible on the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration website.

DOT must also carry out annual education campaigns about such health and safety risks. In carrying out the campaigns, it must consult with motor vehicle industry representatives, states, motor vehicle safety organizations, and other relevant stakeholders.
