Summary (as of Mar 2, 2022)

This bill addresses the removal of federal protections for the gray wolf (Canis lupus).

Specifically, the Department of the Interior must reinstate a rule that removed the gray wolf in the Western Great Lakes region from the endangered and threatened species list. The bill exempts the reinstated rule from judicial review.

In addition, it exempts from judicial review a reinstated rule that removes the gray wolf in Wyoming from the list.
