CDFI Crisis Fund Act

This bill establishes the CDFI National Crisis Fund. The fund is authorized to make grants to community development financial institutions (CDFIs) providing financial products as emergency assistance to small businesses and low-income populations in certain circumstances. Furthermore, the fund is triggered by

- certain emergency declarations, including the COVID-19 emergency period;
- certain disaster declarations;
- a specified increase in a statewide unemployment rate; or
- a specified increase in the nationwide unemployment rate.

Specified amounts in the fund are set aside for grants to Native and minority CDFIs.

The Government Accountability Office must report on the impact of the fund and provide recommendations.
