Summary (as of Sep 22, 2021)

Chinese Military and Surveillance Company Sanctions Act of 2021

This bill requires the President to impose property-blocking sanctions on Communist Chinese military companies upon certain findings.

Specifically, if the President determines that imposing sanctions on a foreign person would address certain threats related to the financing of Chinese Communist military companies, the President must impose sanctions on that person provided that the person is identified (1) as a Communist Chinese military company in a specified report to Congress or in a November 17, 2020, executive order, or (2) by the Department of the Treasury as having engaged in transactions in the publicly traded securities (or derivatives) of a Communist Chinese military company.

Actions Timeline

- Sep 22, 2021: Introduced in House
- Sep 22, 2021: Referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and in addition to the Committee on Financial Services, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned.
