Summary (as of Mar 17, 2022)

Closing Loopholes, Ending Anonymous Revolving Doors Act or the CLEAR Doors Act

This act requires a lobbyist who engages in special lobbying activities to file a report on those activities within 48 hours with the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Special lobbying occurs when a lobbyist who was employed by an executive branch agency in the past four years engages in lobbying activity with an executive official of that agency.
