Summary (as of Jul 5, 2022)

Passenger Rail Station Security Report Act

This bill directs the Transportation Security Administration to submit a report to Congress on counterterrorism security at the five largest passenger rail stations by annual ridership and a representative sample of eight other-sized passenger rail stations.

The report must contain (1) an analysis of the effectiveness of counterterrorism measures implemented in each passenger rail station to include prevention systems; (2) a description of any actions directed as a result of the analysis; (3) recommendations for passenger rail station owners and operators, and state and local transportation entities to improve counterterrorism measures; and (4) proposals for legislative actions and funding needed to improve counterterrorism measures.
