No Taxpayer Funding for United Nations Green Climate Fund Act

This bill requires the Department of State to withhold the same proportion of funds from the mandatory U.S. contribution to the United Nations as the proportion of the U.N. budget made available to the U.N. Green Climate Fund. Such withheld funds must be rescinded and may not be considered arrears to be repaid to the United Nations.

The bill also prohibits the State Department from making voluntary contributions to the U.N. Green Climate Fund.
