Ending Intermittent Energy Subsidies Act of 2025

This bill phases out and eliminates the ability to transfer federal tax credits for solar and wind investments and energy production.

Specifically, the bill phases out over five years the (1) clean electricity investment tax credit for investments in a facility that generates electricity using solar or wind energy, and (2) clean electricity production tax credit for electricity produced from solar or wind energy.

Further, the bill eliminates the ability of a taxpayer to transfer to a third party in exchange for cash any portion of the clean electricity investment tax credit and clean electricity production tax credit attributable to solar or wind energy.
