Summary (as of Mar 4, 2025)

Fighting Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder Act of 2025

This bill requires the Office of Community Oriented Policing Services within the Department of Justice (DOJ) to report on one or more proposed programs for providing mental health care to public safety officers and related personnel.

Under the bill, a proposed program must be administered by DOJ and must make treatment and preventative care available to public safety officers and public safety telecommunicators for job-related post-traumatic stress disorder or acute stress disorder.

The bill requires the report to also include draft legislative language related to each proposed program, as well as the estimated cost for administering each proposed program.
